

TREMPEALEAU COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

Courthouse•36245 Main Street•PO Box 67
Whitehall, Wisconsin 54773-0067
Telephone 715-538-2311 • FAX 715-538-4123

CHARLES V. FELTES, CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE

JUDY K. ZICKERT
Court Reporter
•Ext. 268

ASHLEY BERG
Judicial Office Manager
•Ext. 239

JILL F. CLARK
Register in Probate
•Ext. 238

SARAH MATHENY
Juvenile Clerk•Ext. 264

Wedding Procedures & Policies

1. Set a date for the ceremony with the Judge's office.
2. Obtain a marriage license from county of residence.
3. Send packet back to Judge by: _____
  - a. Fill out Cover Sheet
  - b. Make any changes to the ceremony
(If you wish to draft your own ceremony please feel free to do so.)
4. Pay the fee of $_____ the day of the wedding.

I look forward to being a part of your special day.

Charles V. Feltes

Wedding Ceremony Cover Sheet

DATE OF WEDDING

---

PLACE OF WEDDING

---

TIME OF WEDDING

---

NAME OF BRIDE

---

NAME OF GROOM

---

MAILING ADDRESS

---

---

TELEPHONE NUMBER

---

Marriage Ceremony

We are gathered here in the presence of God and this company to witness and be part of a moment of great significance in the lives of _____.

Marriage is truly the most important and deepest personal relationship between two people. You are about to enter into a binding commitment to each other whereby you pledge to each other your abiding love, loyalty and dedication.

And of all human relationships, marriage, above all else is the deepest and closest relationship of all. It is a togetherness that can exist only between two people who are pledged to the hopes, needs, and goals of each other. It is a partnership which creates many binding obligations for each of you, and in return, it brings you the great opportunity to truly share life and happiness together.

Marriage is a relationship which requires a deep, abiding and true love. In such a relationship, we accept the frailties, faults, and imperfections which we all have. The married couple appreciates and loves one another for the strength, warmth and companionship, which drew you together and contributes to a lasting relationship.

In your marriage, appreciate each other for what you do for one another, as you build up, support, and strengthen each other. Do not forget to let the other know what you mean to one another. We human beings are poor mind readers, and we often need the expressed warmth and words of appreciation for what we do.

This kind of true love is the greatest gift you can ever give or receive. This love will give you the strength to meet life's challenges. It will enable you to share the joys and sorrows together. It will enrich each of you as you share this significant of partnerships.

Knowing and considering all of these things, is it the wish and desire of each of you to be married? (Answer). Would you please join hands.

_____, do you now take, _____, as your lawfully wedded wife? (Answer). Do you promise to love her, comfort her, cherish her, and deeply care for her in sickness and in health? (Answer). Do you promise to be loyal and true to her and to provide for and support her in all things? (Answer).

_____, do you now take, _____, as your lawfully wedded husband? (Answer). Do you promise to love him, comfort him, cherish him, and deeply care for him in sickness and in health? (Answer). Do you promise to be loyal and true to him and to provide for and support him in all things? (Answer).

Would the please place the ring on the bride's finger. _____, do you pledge your abiding loyalty and love to _____? (Answer).

Would the please place the ring on the grooms's finger. _____, do you pledge your abiding loyalty and love to _____? (Answer).

And now, Mr. and Mrs. _____, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Statues of the State of Wisconsin, in the presence of God and these witnesses, I do now pronounce and declare you to be husband and wife! You may kiss the bride.