

CHAPTER 15

PROBATE

15.01 Prohibiting the Filing of Wills with County.

15.01 PROHIBITING THE FILING OF WILLS WITH COUNTY

- (1) The Register in Probate shall not accept for filing the Last Will and Testament of any living person.
- (2) Wills filed prior to the effective date of this ordinance [August 16, 1982] shall be retained by the Register in Probate until such time as the will is properly requested for purposes of probating that person's estate or until the maker of the will requests that it be returned in person or through duly authorized agent or until it is clear that the person having made the will is no longer living and his estate has been probated in this or some other jurisdiction.
- (3) Wills previously filed may also be disposed of according to procedures set forth in Wisconsin Statutes, section 853.09.
